CURRENT SITUATION

Just 1 in 5 passengers pays for on-board services due to a lack of standardization, causing airlines to miss out on $ 80 B in revenue.

Insights reveal that the traditional service button is often underused by passengers, due to feelings of discomfort, resulting in reduced engagement with the cabin crew.

HOW IT WORKS

AEROMOND enables passengers to order on-board services and pay automatically

1. Order

Passenger scrolls through the available options, selecting their service.

2. Delivery

Cabin crew gets notified about the order and serves the passenger.

3. Payment

The charge is automatically applied to the passengers payment method.
